It's getting Haute in Hot-Lanta! Atlanta's sizzling Real Estate Market skyrocketed this week when the National Football League announced the Mercedes Benz stadium home to the NFL's Atlanta Falcons had won the bid for Super Bowl 2019.

The announcement scored a touchdown for Atlanta's Real Estate Market. Luxury condos are quickly filling, for buyers and renters, waiting to secure the perfect view could earn a costly penalty.

Properties, with a perfect view of the 50 yard line are being snapped up like 1065 Midtown that boast the best views of the new Mercedes-Benz stadium and all that Midtown and Downtown have to offer.

1065 Midtown apartment dwellers have the added distinction of sitting atop the Lowes Atlanta Hotel.

Adding to the property's desirability is the fact that 1065 Midtown is the only residential hotel property in Atlanta where homeowners may enjoy many exclusive amenities not shared with hotel guests, such as a private lobby and clubroom, stunning rooftop pool, a 24-hour full-service concierge, as well as private, controlled-access parking.

In addition, all homeowners will enjoy a host of hotel amenities provided to all Loews Atlanta Hotel guests.

Including access to Saltwood restaurant and Exhale spa, in-room private chef/catering, room service, housekeeping, as well as a 24-hour private valet and business center.

Skyline Views, Luxury Amenities: 1065 Midtown, the only Midtown address.
